SO ORDERED.

Dated: January 8, 2025

Re: United States v. Arie Rangott, 23 Cr. 004 (JHR)

Dear Judge Rearden:

On behalf of my client Arie Rangott, I write to request the temporary modification of Mr. Rangott's bail conditions so that his wife may attend a celebration in Canada. Pretrial Services Office has informed me that it does not object to this request, and the Government has told me it defers to Pretrial Services' position on the request.

At the time of Mr. Rangott's arrest, Magistrate Judge Sarah I Cave ordered the surrender of his wife's passport as a condition of Mr. Rangott's bail. ECF No. 132. Mr. Rangott's wife now wishes to attend the 50th birthday of a close family friend in Canada. She plans to drive to Canada, leaving on or about January 15, 2025, and returning on or about January 19 or 20, 2025, weather permitting. Mr. Rangott will not be traveling to Canada and we do not seek the return of his passport.

Accordingly, I request an order (1) permitting the Government to return Mr. Rangott's wife's passport to her temporarily so that she may attend the celebration in Canada and (2) requiring that Mr. Rangott's wife's passport be surrendered to the Government again on or before January 27, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,

William J. Harrington
